Celebrating Sikh Dharam and a New Consciousness

“Regenerating Values for Future Generations”

Charity No. 1139995

The central and universal message of the Sikh scripture is to recognise humanity as one and to see God in all. The living Guru Granth Sahib Ji offers us hope, a path to enlightenment and a practical and timeless message for contemporary daily living.

Our Vision

A peaceful, just and sustainable world achieved through fostering of values of the Sikh Dharam.

Our Mission

To enable young Sikh women and men to cultivate and advance Ekta (social and community cohesion) and Sarbat Da Bhalla (goodwill, good wishes and welfare for all) in order to promote peace and justice through intra and interfaith dialogue and cooperation.

We aim to do this by:

Working with Sikh children and youth (3-30 year olds) to help them gain a deeper understanding of their faith and what it can offer to them in the 21st Century through devotion, selfless service (voluntary work) and charitable activities.

Bringing together members of our sangat or congregations from Gurudwaras with like-minded businesses, organisations, institutions and individuals as active owners and participants to work towards our shared values.

Working through intra and inter-faith dialogue and co-operation as a powerful way of promoting peace, justice and tolerance as well as a greater understanding of the Sikh faith.

To accomplish this, we invite Gurudwaras, businesses, institutions and individuals who subscribe to attaining this goal to join us. Supporting The Sangat Trust

Your Support

Any form of support is welcomed. Our Gurus inform us that we must support those less fortunate than ourselves through performing Sewa and Daswand. The Guru's stipulate that we must give a minimum of 10% of time and/or financial support. Other support for the Trust can be through sharing of our knowledge, contacts, experience and skills.
